"INTERESTS" WILL DEFY TAFT TO FAVOR PEOPLE

COURT IS DARED TO HARM TRUSTS

"Decide for Us or We'll Bring Financial Panic,"
Is the Ultimatum
Seen

EXECUTIVE IS IN A QUANDARY

He Wants to Make Good so
He Can Run Again, but the "Interests" Are Threatening Him

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 8.—President Taft today is considering whether he will have to put his back to the wall and "mix it" with the big financial interests as well as with congress in order to put through his legislative program. From the beginning of the present session, there has been a tremendous amount of advice from interests in the matter of the administration's program and the president has had hard work in his efforts to prove that his measures are destined "ultimately" to benefit capital. Every financier and railway magnate who calls at the White house to discuss legislation drags forth that fearsome bugaboo—a financial panic—and tries to show that any radical legislation will ruin the country.

At some points this has approached almost to a threat, which the president does not relish. He clings tenaciously to his outlined program and is not prepared to relinquish any substantial feature.

Only a "Chinese Army"

But if Wall street's temporary epileptic fit yesterday was the result of the introduction of the president's federal incorporation bill in congress Wall street has reached a point where it is frightened by shadows. The president does not intend forcing the federal incorporation bill to passage this year.

It is extremely doubtful whether he could prod congress into passing it even if he so desired.

The things that are worrying Wall street most, however, are the interstate commerce law amendments recommended by the president, and the possibility of further trust prosecutions if the supreme court upholds the verdicts in the Standard Oil and tobacco cases.

Big Pressure Coming

It has been pretty definitely settled that the president contemplates a campaign under the Sherman anti-trust law if that law holds good in the pending cases.

This does not sit well on the Wall street chest, and scientific efforts are being made to relieve the uncertainty by securing a definite statement from the president as to just what he intends to do. But he refuses to commit himself until the Standard Oil and tobacco trust cases come down, referring all inquirers to his messages.

Trusts are Bluffing

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Direct charges that the pronounced liquidation in the stock market is for the purpose of influencing the administration in Washington and the supreme court of the United States in dealing with the trusts are made by stock exchange experts today.

They declare that the "interests" are giving the supreme court an object lesson of what may be expected if the decision in the suit to dissolve the tobacco trust is in favor of the government and in the Standard Oil decision, characterizing the Standard Oil company of New Jersey as a combination in restraint of trade, is upheld.

Then again the "interests," it is claimed, want the bill providing for federal incorporations so changed that it will not be possible for a hostile congress to step in and "throw the fat in the fire" by providing still more stringent regulations for the supervision and regulation of all federal corporations.

Manipulating Market

Experts, however, declare the banks and financial institutions are in the best condition, and that any attempt to show a money stringency is only a bluff. The market is also being manipulated, it is claimed to frighten the legislators at Washington into killing objectionable legislation for fear the "interests" might bring about a panic.

"Big" Interests Won't Fight

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Officers of the United States Steel corporation, J. P. Morgan & Co., and other great financial and industrial corporations will not openly oppose the administration's federal incorporation law. This fact became known through statements made public today.

DIRECT PRIMARY MEN CONTROL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 8.—Prospects for an early settlement of the primary question in the Illinois General assembly are the brightest today they have been at any time. The direct primary men appear to be in control of the situation.

FULLER FELL TO LURE OF DRINK

Once Brilliant Newspaper
Man of Detroit Saved
From Grave of Pauper

PREFERRED DEATH TO SIN

Strange Coincidence of Undelivered Letter from the Superintendent of a Michigan Mission

Fred F. Fuller, five years ago one of the brainiest newspaper men of Detroit, Mich., was saved from a pauper's grave today when Warren N. Fuller, his brother living in Peoria, Ill., wired he would pay the burial expenses. Coroner Kleeber this morning received $35.00 from the relative to pay the costs of the interment. The message stated the brother did not want Fuller buried in the Potter's field, but did not say he would attend the funeral.

Fuller died at the La Crosse hospital of pneumonia and pleurisy brought on through exposure suffered during his last spree. He was given a jail sentence for drunkenness on Jan. 22 and was in reality in the custody of the sheriff when he died. He was a man of good appearance, but had fallen to whiskey.

Fuller will be buried tomorrow. One of the coincidences in death of Fuller is found in the fact a letter was written by Melville E. Trotter, superintendent of the Grand Rapids Rescue Mission containing the following words:

"If you lie to me this time and do not go square, I think your chances with God will be slim. The Lord is not going to pull you through many of these times if you go back on him. I could almost pray he would take you out of this world before he would allow you to go back into sin, again."

Before the letter could be delivered by the sheriff, in whose care it was sent, Fuller was dead.

KILL NEGROES AND END RACE RIOT

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Feb. 8.—That three negroes have been killed and the danger of rioting is at an end, is the latest news from Halesbar, where apparently helpless whites were besieged in the government dam construction camp by negroes armed with rifles.

Captain Wm. Burke, who left for the scene of the race disorders early today, is reported to have telephoned the following message to local police headquarters:

"Three negroes dead. Trouble all over. Start back in two hours after we get breakfast."

MAYME UTERMUEHL MARRIED TODAY

Miss Mayme Utermuehl, daughter of secretary of the La Crosse board of trade, J. L. Utermuehl, was married at 7 o'clock this morning to Mr. Henry Hoesly, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Schauenberg at Fountain City, Wis.

The bride is an attractive and popular girl among the younger set at Fountain City, while the groom is engaged in the dry goods business at Hamline, North Dakota.

J. L. Utermuehl of this city, the father of the bride, and J. L. Utermuehl, Jr., of this city, a brother, attended the ceremony.

The young couple left immediately for Hamline, where they will reside.

YOUNG WIFE IS CALLED BY DEATH

After a nineteen months' illness with tuberculosis, Mrs. Flora Hill, aged 24 years, wife of Fred Hill, died at her home, 1002 Badger street at 4 o'clock this morning.

The funeral is to be held from the home of Mr. Hill's parents in La Crescent, and interment will be made in the cemetery at that place with Fessler & Dahl, La Crosse, in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Hill was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Chalsma, New Amsterdam, Wis., and was born at that place on Nov. 14, 1885.

She is survived by a husband and a 3 year old daughter.

NURSE'S STORY OF SWOPE DEATH HITS AT DR. HYDE

SWOPE REVIVING ACCUSED DRUGS

Seemed in Horrible Agony and His Limbs Turned Blue 20 Minutes After the Dose

SHE FEARED CONSEQUENCES

Old Man was with Hydes, at End, who Then Took the Will from His Pocket

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 8.—While the crowded court room at independence, Mo., in which the inquest into the death of Col. Thomas H. Swope is being held, was so still that those in the anterooms could hear part of the testimony, Miss Pearl Kellar, Swope's nurse, today described the death of the millionaire philanthropist. She told how Dr. Hyde brought a capsule which he said was to aid digestion, how it was administered to Swope and twenty minutes later he was thrown into convulsions which resulted in death.

Miss Kellar said she had prepared Swope's breakfast and taken it to him. About an hour later Dr. Hyde came in.

"I was seated at the table," said the nurse. "Dr. Hyde asked me if Col. Swope had eaten breakfast. I told him that he had."

"Then come with me," said Hyde, and I left the table. The doctor told me that he had brought some digestive tablets that we had been waiting for. He said he wanted Col. Swope to have one just as soon as possible after breakfast.

"I want him to have it right now," he told me.

Wouldn't Take Capsule

Miss Kellar then told how she went up to Col. Swope's room with Dr. Hyde and how the doctor tried to get Col. Swope to take a capsule which he took from a little pink box he carried.

"I think it was a three grain capsule," she continued, "and I don't remember whether it was grey or white, but I know it was not brownish."

Col. Swope, she said, refused to take the capsule when the doctor offered it but she signed to Dr. Hyde that she could get Swope to take it later and they left the room. Later she returned with some newspapers and Col. Swope took the capsule and she sat to read to him. She heard a peculiar breathing sound and glanced up.

"Col. Swope's face had changed, his eyes were directed toward the west window. They were set and wild. The pupils were dilated. He began to tremble and the color of his face changed."

"Col. Swope," I called, "Col. Swope, what's the matter?" but he would not answer me.

Face Changed

"Then his face changed again, growing whiter and whiter," the nurse said, "and a peculiar sound came from his throat." She then ran to the door and Mrs. Hyde was passing. Miss Kellar sent Mrs. Hyde running for the doctor.

It was just twenty minutes after giving the capsule that the change came, Miss Kellar said. It was some minutes before Dr. Hyde appeared. When he came in he examined Col. Swope and at once declared that the attack was apoplexy brought on by news of the death of Col. Hunton.

The doctor ordered hypodermic injections of strychnine every fifteen minutes. Miss Kellar declared. After giving the first one she looked for the little pink box in which the capsules had been but could not find them.

By this time Col. Swope was in a state of coma, she said. "He was breathing with difficulty. I gave him

INTERURBAN HAS ACCEPTED GRANT

Franchise Passed by City Council Approved by Legal Experts of the Company

President W. J. Ferris of the La Crosse Water Power Company, announced this afternoon that the franchise granted the La Crosse & Winona Interurban company by the city council some time ago, has been examined and approved by the legal representatives of the company, and that the franchise has been officially accepted by the company. It grants the new interurban a fifty-year right to operate an interurban line and provides it shall be in operation within a specified time.

There still remains a few days of the extension of time allowed after passage in which the people might revoke the franchise by vote, but as there was no opposition to the franchise from the people, this is considered of no consequence.

COUNTY GLAD TO SELL POOR FARM

If Reasonable Offer Is Secured from Bishop Jas. Schwebach, It will Be Accepted

If a reasonable offer is received from Bishop James Schwebach who wishes to convert it into an orphanage, the county of La Crosse will probably dispose of the La Crosse County poor farm and erect a new one in connection with the La Crosse County Insane hospital at West Salem.

At the meeting held yesterday afternoon with the county board committee on poor and insane, and the special committee appointed to investigate conditions at the poor farm, Bishop Schwebach and Father Beyer who have inspected the property declared that they will make the county a definite offer for the farm within a week.

Members of the committee stated after the meeting last night that in case this offer is acceptable to them, they will call a special meeting of the board, and recommend to the supervisors that the bishop's offer be immediately accepted.

Speaking of the matter this morning, Supervisor Oscar Hulberg, who is a member of the committee declared that in his opinion the proposed deal is a good one and will be favorably passed upon by the board.

CALHOUN'S MAN WOULD FREE HIM

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—An attempt to set aside sixteen indictments against four officials of the United railroads, accused of attempted bribery of city officials, was defeated yesterday by Judge Lawlor, who denied a motion to that effect filed by District Attorney Fickert. During the recent campaign Fickert, who ran for office against Francis J. Heney, was accused of being the personal candidate of Patrick Calhoun, president of the United railroads.

The indictments Fickert asked to have dismissed are against Calhoun, T. L. Ford, Thornwell Mullally and Wm. C. Abbott. The indictments charge attempted bribery of members of the board of supervisors who held office under the Ruef-Schmitz regime.

Samples of the water secured during his investigations and tour of inspection will be presented as well as his detailed report.

A map of the city showing the proposed water systems has also been prepared.

The regular water committee of the council consists of Aldermen Tarbox, Kohn and Houska; the special council committee appointed by the mayor consists of Kroner, Goddard and Downs; the committee of the Manufacturer and Jobber's union consists of Gund, Funk, and Hirschelmer and the Board of Trade committee is composed of Dittman, Copeland and Ray.

MUSICIAN GIVEN FINAL FURLOUGH

Julius H. Hegenbarth Dies
while Seeking Relief from Army to Attend Parents

IS FIRST TO ANSWER CALL

Sad Circumstances Surround Death of Well Known Musician of La Crosse

The uncertainty of fate was demonstrated this morning when Julius H. Hegenbarth, musician in the regular army band and stationed at Ft. Snelling at St. Paul, died at 2:30 o'clock here, where he had come on furlough to attend his aged parents, both of whom are seriously ill.

Death was due to pneumonia contracted during the last two days. Hegenbarth was a La Crosse boy and enlisted in the regular army as a musician.

His mother and father were recently taken ill and he was granted a short furlough to attend them. As the time approached for his return to his company the condition of his parents grew worse and he made an effort to secure a temporary discharge to attend his father and mother during what he thought was their last days.

Certificates and affidavits testifying to the precarious condition of the parents were secured by Hegenbarth from La Crosse doctors and Mayor Sorensen and it was while waiting for word from the fort that he died. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

VOLCANO EMPTIES COSTA RICA TOWNS

PORT LIMON, Feb. 8.—Residents in the neighborhood of the volcano Poas, are in flight following an eruption reported to be the worst in the history of the mountain. Streams of lava are flowing through the fertile valleys at the foot of the mountain and villages, towns and plantations are being destroyed. Rocks weighing 200 pounds have been hurled two miles from the crater by the force of the eruption, and rocks weighing 100 pounds have crashed through the roofs of houses, five kilometers from the foot of the mountain.

Considerable destruction from this source occurred at La Lecheria.

The villages and towns in the volcano zone, almost as far as San Jose, the capital have been destroyed. In Cabadilla the streets are filled with ashes almost to the roofs of the houses.

It is reported that there has been some loss of life on the plantations near the volcano but no definite news has yet been received.

AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

Who does not know of the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put up an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for $1.50 and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the manufacturers upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by O. T. Erhart.

BARCLAY SUICIDE

Free Sample
For Baby's Ills

Something can and must be done for the puny, crying baby, for the child that refuses to eat and is restless in its sleep. And since the basis of all health is the proper working of the digestive organs, look first to the condition of the stomach and bowels.

A child should have two full and free movements of the bowels a day. This emptying of the bowels is very important, as with it comes a clear head, a lightness of step, good appetite and sound emergency of constipation and indigestion. Cathartics are too strong and salts and other purgatives are not only too strong, but the child refuses them because of their bad taste. Have you ever used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin? It is a liquid tonic that families have been using for a quarter of a century. It is mild, pleasant-tasting and promptly effective. It is good for you as well as the child, but there is nothing better to give to your children. They like its taste and you will not have to force them to take it.

First of all, if you have not yet used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, you may get a sample bottle free of charge. In this way you can try it before buying. Later, when convinced of its merits, you can order a bottle, one given to each of your families are doing. The family of Mr. D. W. Spangler of Strattonville, Pa., as well as that of Mr. A. F. Johnson of Walnut Grove, Tenn., started with it that way and now write that it is their one family necessity next to food itself. If you are unfortunate enough to have a sickly child, one given to constipation and indigestion, you should send for a free sample of this remedy.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 1524 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

WISCONSIN NEWS

FLOWERS AND GIFTS
FOR MRS. BROCKHAUS

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 8.—Two incidents of a striking nature marked the afternoon session on Monday in the resumption of the trial of Mrs. Anna Brockhaus, charged with mayhem.

The arrest of any person who annoyed Mrs. Brockhaus or her relatives on their way to or from the court room was threatened by Judge Alvin C. Brazee, who said:

"I have been informed that* last Saturday, when this court adjourned at noon, this defendant and her friend were subjected to ill treatment and insult."

Judge Brazee referred to a vain effort of a loudly dressed woman who was prevented by watchful deputies from approaching Mrs. Brockhaus. He said that he could not conceive of such action on the part of Milwaukeeans of breeding, and warned that the arrest of offenders would result from the repetition of such an occurrence.

The second incident was when a box of candy, a bag of oranges and a dozen carnations were laid upon the table before Mrs. Brockhaus.

They were the gift of a woman who had failed to gain entrance in the courtroom. She had failed to secure a place, and when deputies barred her entrance at the door, she went into the clerk's office and handed the gift to Deputy Clerk August Schmidt who saw that the flowers reached their destination. With them was a note reading:

"To my dear Mrs. Brockhaus, from one who knows the cares and troubles of motherhood and sympathizes."

RUNESTONE SCRAP
NOW ON AT MADISON

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 8.—In the midst of a merry scrap over the genuineness of the Kensington runestone, which purports to show that Norsemen penetrated to Minnesota in the year 1362, it has been decided that President Van Hise of the university of Wisconsin shall examine the famous relic and decide upon its age and character from the standpoint of one of the country's greatest geologists.

Carefully boxed and watched during shipment, the queer find is expected in Madison today and its authenticity will be warmly defended tonight by Hjalmar Rued Holand of Ephraim, Wis., in a lecture under the auspices of the Wisconsin Estate Historical society. Mr. Holand for several years has been custodian of the stone and has spent most of his time digging up facts to support his claim.

MINNESOTA AND
THE NORTHWESTWILL RUN AGAINST THE COWBOY MAYOR

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 8.—Governor Shallenberger has put on the gloves and will enter the ring with Mayor Dahlman of this city to contest for the democratic nomination for governor.

Governor Shallenberger was in Omaha several times last week, and to friends announced his candidacy. Moreover a few nights ago he addressed a farmers' institute at Valley, and told his audience that he is seeking a renomination and reelection. While the gathering was made up of both of democrats and republicans, the announcement was well received, and the governor was given the "glad hand" at the close of the meeting.

Governor Shallenberger has been assured that if he succeeds in securing the nomination he will receive a goodly number of republican votes here. This assurance has come from the Anti-Saloon league, the strength of which is about equally divided between the republican and democratic parties.

The anti-saloon people feel certain that in the event the next Nebraska legislature should succeed in securing enough votes to repeal the early closing law, it would be vetoed by Governor Shallenberger, and that enough strength could not be secured to pass it over his veto.

The governor has put a quietus on the report that he intends to make a campaign for United States senator from the eastern district of Nebraska.

SOLD "METEOR CHIPS" AND GOES TO JAIL

CARRINGTON, N. D., Feb. 8.—Because of the interest in the large meteor, which fell near this city recently, John Wilson engaged in the manufacture of "chips from the meteor," made by melting old beer bottles and similar material, which he sold to unsuspecting farmer visitors in the city at $1 a chip. The scheme collapsed today when a victim discovered the deception, had the man arrested. Wilson had quite a collection of "chips" on hand.

The Quest for Beauty

By MADAME MADELENE MAREE.

Mrs. D. It is impossible to answer every question direct that is asked me, but you will always find an answer that will apply to every question. Am sorry you did not read all the answers last week then you would not have been disappointed. For massaging I would recommend the cerol cream, made by dissolving three ounces of powdered cerol crystals in a pint of boiling water and stirring constantly until cold. This is non-greasy, disappears quickly and does not make hair grow on the face and arms.

Mrs. S. I have so many people write me about their tender, aching feet. I know if you try a little of the boro-listor solution in a foot bath every night before retiring you'll soon forget you had sore, tired feet. To make the boro-listor solution get one ounce bottle of boro-listor in powder from your druggist and half a pint of alcohol; dissolve the boro-listor in one and one-half pints of hot water and when cold add the alcohol.

Jennie. To remove those troublesome and unsightly hairs, take a little of the powdered delol, make a paste and put on the hairy places, leave on for about five minutes then scrape off with a blunt instrument of some kind, wash with warm water and rub a little cerol cream over the spot. Get the delol in the original one-ounce bottle and it must be mixed fresh when used.

Mrs. T. R. I really do not know of a flesh reducer, maybe if you try rolling on the floor every morning it will reduce your flesh.

R. G. I am glad you liked the cerol cream. It certainly is the best massage cream I ever saw. If your hair is falling out you can easily stop it by using a tonic made as follows:

Mix half a pint of alcohol with half a pint of warm water and let

ELKINS' INSURGENCY

Somehow there seems to be a general tendency to accept Senator Elkins' threat of insurgency with several large grains of salt. The West Virginia statesman, angered because his cost of living resolution was side-tracked and a later one, introduced by Senator Lodge, accepted, made a protechnical address in which he announced his intention of leaving the reservation and abandoning Aldrich, Hale and the rest of them, to their fate.

But while there is no general expectation that Mr. Elkins will insure to any particular extent or that the plain people of the nation will profit largely by his excursion off the reservation, his speech was pleasantly entertaining with regard to its references to Senator Aldrich and the tariff debate.

Mr. Elkins made no bones of saying that he had been so tied up by his necessities with regard to protective tariffs on several things, that he had been forced to hold his fiery spirit in check to do as the crafty gentleman from Rhode Island bade him. But now, he insists, the tariff bill is passed, the Elkins interests are duly conserved, and he is at liberty to look out for the interests of the people.

All of which is very interesting. And if Mr. Elkins were to come into the insurgent camp with all his baggage he would probably be welcomed, albeit as a philosopher. He has no use for La Follette, Dooliver or the other senatorial insurgents, and these gentlemen entertain very reasonable suspicions of Mr. Elkins' disinterested zeal for the common people.

The upshot of the matter will probably be that Mr. Elkins will be placated by some attention with regard to the cost of living investigation. He will lay aside his weapons, wipe the war paint from his perspiring countenance and return to the reservation. And the people, having witnessed his ghost dance with mild amusement, will forget all about it again.—Milwaukee News.

AND THE GRAFTERS WANT THIS

In spite of the fact that he lives in Seattle, and his name sounds much like that of the secretary of the interior, John E. Ballaine has made a proposition to the federal government that is calculated to make all of the old-time land grabbers and coal barons sit up and gasp with astonishment. Mr. Ballaine is reported to be the largest individual land owner in Alaska, and appears to entertain an idea that it would not be the proper thing to rob the government. Accordingly, he has offered to pay a royalty of 50 cents a ton on coal mined, provided he is given a long-time lease on 5,000 acres of government coal lands in the Katalla and Matanuska districts of Alaska. He estimates that the government by accepting his proposition, will derive royalties amounting to $20,000 an acre.

It must be that Mr. Ballaine has not been trained in the modern school of high finance. If he has been, doubtless he would have his representatives at Washington lobbying for the bill now pending, which provides for the sale of these lands at the rate of $10 an acre. It would be interesting to have the Wall Street opinion of a man who is willing to pay royalties amounting to $20,000 an acre on lands that he could buy outright for $10 if he could enlist a few friendly congressmen in his behalf.

Mr. Ballaine is not attempting to play the philanthropic role, but is making his offer as a straight business proposition, figuring that he can make a splendid profit out of the transaction, even if he does give the government a healthy bonus. His proposition should at least serve to call a halt upon the progress of any bill which is designed to take these highly valuable coal lands from the government without adequate compensation.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Since progressive policies are for the people's interest, is not all this opposition to progressive legislation an admission of alliance against the people's interests?

The "hush, hush" policy is invariably the methods of those whose operations will not stand the limelight of publicity.

After all, can the wisest philosopher tell where he came from, why he is here, and where he is going?

"Ike" Stephenson does so much in the senate the papers have little room to print any other news.

Mr. Elkins threatens to join the insurgents. Not if the insurgents catch him at it.

The brightest thing that was ever thought was forgotten. Struggling for an existence is a beastly undignified proceeding.

THE HOME PHYSICIAN

This Recipe Makes a Splendid Remedy for Coughs

The home-made remedy described below will be found a very handy and effective thing to have in the house ready for use. It is simple, pleasant to take, easy to prepare, and lasts a family a long time. It wipes out a cough quickly.

Take a pint of Granulated Sugar, add one-half pint of warm water, and stir about two minutes. Put two and one-half ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle and fill up with the Granulated Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

Cough preparations, as a rule, are mostly syrup. Granulated Sugar Syrup is both cheap and excellent. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway White Pine Extract and is rich in all the healing pine elements.

None of the weaker pine preparations can compare with the real Pinex itself. If your druggist hasn't it, he can easily get it for you.

This recipe is also splendid for chest pains, whooping cough, hoarseness, bronchitis, etc. Strained honey can be used instead of the syrup, and makes a very fine honey and pine tar cough syrup.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE FATALITIES

Could Easily Be Avoided By Proper Attention To The Warning Signals Of Kidneys and Bladder.

PRESCRIPTION GENUINELY GOOD

This prescription is genuinely good and may safely be used by any one having the symptoms (any of them) of kidney disorders and bad health. Any honest druggist can mix it, or one can get the genuine ingredients separately and mix it at home and sure results will be accomplished. Mix fluid extract buchu 1 oz., compound fluid balmwort 1 oz., and compound syrup sarsaparilla 4 ozs. The directions are to shake well and take a teaspoonful before or after meals and one when retiring. Also drink plenty of water through the day.

The reader should note if any of the following symptoms are strongly manifested, and begin taking the right medicine at once if they are: Deranged kidneys and bladder are indicated by dry parched skin, hot and cold sensations, frequent burning or scanty urination, (especially at night), with bad odor, tender spots in back, loss of weight, morning weakness swollen feet and ankles, backache, headache, inflamed eyes, etc.

It is not the intention to frighten the reader, but merely to direct attention to the danger signals of the body.

An Osculatory Schedule

A new method of marking time has been introduced by Conductor Joe Gordon, who is one of the most popular trainmen on the Amboy division of the Pennsylvania railroad. Mr. Gordon is not only a favorite with the men passengers and admired by the women, but probably because he used to run the milk train from Bordentown to Camden he is also beloved by the babies.

Notwithstanding his sweet and gentle nature, it almost makes him peevish when he has to hold his train while a lot of lovely women kiss each other good-bye, and more than once he has been tempted to give his locomotive a swift kick and hike down the road without them.

Recently Joe stopped his train at a station where no less than twenty women were congregated on the platform. Some of them were going away and some of them weren't, and just as the last moment arrived everybody started to kiss everybody else. All of this took valuable time, and the genial Joseph was patiently waiting.

"All aboard!" he finally shouted, after standing for the sweetness as long as he could. "This train for Philadelphia and way stations."

"Oh, Mr. Gordon," gushfully cried a little fairy, "wait just a minute, won't you? I must kiss Bessie good-bye."

"All right," returned Joe, heaving a large, sad sigh. "but be as quick as you can, please. We are about 150 kisses late now."—Philadelphia Telegram.

The Funeral Baked Meats

The Customer—Hi, waiter! What do you mean on the menu by "Brown Soup," "Jonnese Eggs" and "Harried Mutton?"

The Waiter—Well, sir, you see, sir, we often give dishes names of our clients who die after being regular customers here.—The Sketch.

The Sting of Ingratitude

A young physician in the east side, New York city, spends much time in charitable practice. In fact, he sometimes gives to a poor patient enough money to pay for prescriptions, "I'm not getting rich," he explains, "but I simply can't see them suffer for medicines that may put them on their feet again."

Not many days ago the doctor had occasion to visit a woman who occupied one small tenement room with her three children. After making out a prescription he gave her $2, telling her to buy the medicine and to use the change for needed food. On the following day, as he was about to enter the tenement for a second call he met the 10 year old daughter of the patient.

"How is your mother?" he inquired of the child. "Oh, she's all well," was the reply. "She took that $2 and got a real doctor."—Newark Star.

Would Give Her Away

Officiating Clergyman—"At the wedding this evening, Mr. Simpkins, do you intend to give your daughter away?"

Mr. Simpkins—Sure! I don't expect any remuneration; besides that, I'm only too glad to get her off my hands!—Charles Cormack Mullin in Judge.

Such Stuff as Dreams

"I'm beginning to believe that there is something in the claim that dreams go by contraries," says Ralph Martin, the railroad man. "The other night I dreamed that I found a $5 bill and the next day I lost a 'V' somewhere between the Hollenden and the Lake Shore offices."

"The next night I dreamed that I had been hurt and that an accident insurance company's agent was handing me $25. When I got down to the office I found on my desk a notice from this company that my annual assessment was due and unpaid."

"A night or two later I dreamed that a man who had borrowed $10 from me a year ago was paying me back, and may I never vote for Billy Bryan again if the chap who borrowed the $10 bill didn't meet me on the street the next day and make another touch."—Cleveland Press.

Near-Billiards

T otwaveling salesmen, detained in a little village hotel, were introduced to a crazy little billiard table and a set of balls which were of a uniform dirty gray color.

"But how do you tell the red from the white?" asked one of the guests. "Oh," replied the landlord, "you soon get to know them by their shape."—Success Magazine.

Too Bad

Father—You are marrying my daughter for love, you say? But she gets 80,000 marks dowry.

Suitor—Well, that can't be avoided, can it?—Fliegende Blaetter.

The Suspect's Declaration

Parson White's precautionary measure of protecting his chicken coop with chilled steel bars was futile, for that very night four more of his choice leghorns disappeared, leaving the severed and twisted bars as the only visible evidence of the theft. However, the suspicious pointed toward his next door neighbor, whom he had seen prowling around his yard that day and, accordingly he had this suspect up in the police court the next morning.

"If the prisoner can file an alibi, I'll let him off with a suspended sentence," announced the judge at the end of the evidence. "Can you file an alibi, Ham?"

"Ah guess Ah k'n," eagerly rejoined the suspect, "if it ain't any harder den Pabson White's chicken coop bahs!"—Brooklyn Life.

Last night being given to "The Clansman," the DeVoss company will resume its tenancy of the theater tonight, offering "Merely Mary Jane." As you grow older don't you find the people you like best are not the brightest, most entertaining, best looking, most capable, richest and most successful among your acquaintances, but are those who have what is called "a good disposition?"

"Certainly not. It has been shown to no one. I have been here in Washington working—well, working in secret to secure this document for you. I do this—well, I will be frank with you—I do it for Mr. Trist. He is my friend. I wish to say to you that he has been—a faithful—"

I saw her face whiten and her lips shut tight. She swayed a little as she stood. Doctor Ward was at her side and assisted her to a couch. For the first time the splendid courage of Helena von Ritz seemed to fail her. She sank back, white, unconscious. "It's these damned stays, John," began Doctor Ward fiercely. "She has fainted. Here, put her down, so. We'll bring her around in a minute. Great Joe! I want her to hear us thank her. It's splendid work she has done for us. But why?"

When, presently, under the ministrations of the old physician, Helena von Ritz recovered her consciousness, she arose, fighting desperately to pull herself together and get back her splendid courage.

"Would you retire now, Madam?" asked Mr. Calhoun. "I have sent for my daughter."

"No, no. It is nothing!" she said. "Forgive me, it is only an old habit of mine. See, I am quite well!"

Indeed, in a few moments she had regained something of that magnificent energy which was her heritage. As though nothing had happened, she arose and walked swiftly across the room. Her eyes were fixed upon the great map which hung upon the walls—a strange map it would seem to us today. Across this she swept a white hand.

"I saw your men cross this," she said, pointing along the course of the great Oregon Trail—whose detailed path was then unknown to our geographers. "I saw them go west along that road of destiny. I told myself that by virtue of their courage they had won this war. Sometime there will come the great war between your people and those who rule them. The people still will win."

She spread out her two hands top and bottom of the map. "All, all, ought to be yours—from the Isthmus to the ice, for the sake of the people of the world. The people—but in time they will have their own!"

We listened to her silently, crediting her enthusiasm for her sex, her race; but what she said has remained in one mind at least from that day to this. Well might part of her speech remain in the minds today of people and rulers alike. Are we worth the price paid for the country that we gained? And when we shall be worth that price, what numerals shall mark our territorial lines?

"May I carry this document to Mr. Pakenham?" asked John Calhoun, at last, touching the paper on the table.

"Please, no. Do not. Only be sure that this proposition of compromise will meet with his acceptance."

"I do not quite understand why you do not go to Mr. Buchanan, our secretary of state."

"Because I pay my debts," she said simply. "I told you that Mr. Trist and I were comrades. I conceived it might be some credit for him in his work to have been the means of doing this much."

"He shall have that, credit, Madam, be sure of that," said John Calhoun. He held out to her his long, thin, bloodless hand.

"Madam," he said, "I have been mistaken in many things. My life will be written down as failure. I have been misguided. But at least it shall not be said of me that I failed to reverence a woman such as you. All that I thought of you, that first night I met you, was more than true. And did I not tell you you would one day, one way, find your reward?"

He did not know what he said; but I knew, and I spoke with him in the silence of my own heart, knowing that his speech would be the same were his knowledge even with mine. "Tomorrow," went on Calhoun, "tomorrow evening there is to be what we call a ball of our diplomacy at the White House. Our administration, knowing that war is soon to be announced in the country, seeks to make a little festival here at the capital. We whistle to keep up our courage. We listen to music to make us forget our consciences. Tomorrow night we dance. All Washington will be there. Baroness von Ritz, a card will come to you."

She swept him a curtsy and gave him a smile.

"Now, as for me," he continued, "I am an old man, and long ago danced my last dance in public. Tomorrow night all of us will be at the White House—Mr. Trist will be there, and Doctor Ward and a certain lady, a Miss Elisabeth Churchill, Madam, whom I shall be glad to have you meet. You must not fail us, dear lady, because I am going to ask of you one favor."

He bowed with a courtesy which might have come from generations of an old aristocracy. "If you please, Madam, I ask you to honor me with your hand for my first dance in life."

Impulsively she held out both her hands, bowing her head as she did so to hide her face. Two old gray men, one younger man, took her hands and kissed them.

Now our flag floats on the Columbia and on the Rio Grande. I am older now, but when I think of hat scene, I wish that flag might float yet freer; and though the price were war itself, that it might float over a cleaner and a nobler people, over cleaner and nobler rulers, more sensible of the splendor of that heritage of principle which should be ours.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

The Palo Alto Ball.

(A beautiful woman pleases the eye, a good woman pleases the heart; one is a jewel, the other a treasure.—Napoleon I.)

On the evening of that following day in May, the sun hung red and round over a distant unknown land along the Rio Grande. In that country, no iron trails as yet had come. The magic of the wires, so recently applied to the service of man, was as yet there unknown. Word traveled slowly by horses and mules and carts. There came small news from that far-off country, half tropic, covered with palms and crooked dwarfed growth of mesquite and chaparral. The long-horned cattle lived in these dense thickets, the spotted jaguar, the wolf, the ocelot, the javalina, many smaller creatures not known in our northern lands. In the loam along the stream the deer left their tracks mingled with those of the wild turkeys and of countless water fowl. It was a far-off, unknown, unvalued land. Our flag, long past the Sabine, had halted at the Nueces. Now it was to advance across this wild region to the Rio Grande. Thus did smug James Polk keep his promises!

Among these tangled mesquite thickets ran sometimes long bayous, made from the overflow of the great rivers—resacas, as the natives call them. Tall palms sometimes grew along the bayous, for the country is half tropic. Again, on the drier ridges, there might be alder detached trees, heavier forests—palo alto, the natives call them. In some such place as this, where the trees were tall, there was fired the first gun of our war in the Southwest. There were strange noises heard there in the wilderness, followed by lesser noises, and by human groans. Some faces that night were upturned to the moon, the same moon which Ecceza sufferers who have never tried the oil of wintergreen compound (known as D. D. D. Prescription), are now enabled to get a trial bottle of this recognized remedy at only 25 cents. This is a special offer, this compound having sold for over ten years in $1.00 bottles.

The oil of wintergreen as compounded with thymol and other healing ingredients in D. D. D. Prescription is now recognized by scientists in both America and Europe. It takes away the itch the very moment it is washed into the skin and the cures all seem to be permanent. At any rate, we ASSURE you that the itch is allayed INSTANTLY! We know this and VOUCH for it. Hence, we specially urge a trial—now—while the patient can get a bottle at only 25 cents. Be sure to ask for the oil as properly compounded under the name of D. D. D. Prescription. Hoerschler Bros.

swam so gloriously over Washington. Taylor camped closer to the Rio Grande. The fight was next to begin by the lagoon called the Resaca de la Palma. But that night at the capital that same moon told us nothing of all his. We did not hear the guns. It was far from Palo Alto to our ports of Balveston or New Orleans. Our cockaded army made its own history in its own unreported way.

TACK THIS UP

Prescription that Breaks up the Worst Cold in a Day

Every winter this prescription is published here and thousands have been benefited by it. "Get two ounces of Glycerine and half an ounce of Concentrated Pine compound. Then get half a pint of good whiskey and put the other two ingredients into it. Take a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful of this mixture after each meal and at bed time. Shake the bottle well each time." But be sure to get only the genuine Concentrated Pine. Each half ounce bottle comes in a tin screw-top case. Any druggist has it on hand or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. Many other pine extracts are impure and cause nausea.

FINISH DOUBLE TRACK IN YEAR

Stretch Between Richmond and Wabasha on the Milwaukee Progressing Rapidly

EMPLOY OVER 600 LABORERS

Men Behind the Stupendous Task Have Offices at Wabasha; Labor Is Very Plentiful

In three cozy little rooms which have been suitably fitted up, a large force of civil engineers, mechanical draftsmen, clerks, etc., under the supervision of F. J. Herlihy, are directing the work of 600 hundred men who are engaged in the work of double tracking the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway between Richmond and Wabasha.

Few people realize the stupendous work being accomplished by this vast army of men; neither do they imagine that the immense sum of six million dollars will be expended by the railway company in the completion of the work. Such, however, is a fact, and when the double tracking is completed the Milwaukee road will be the owners of one of the finest stretches of road in the United States.

Many New Bridges.

In connection with the double tracking of the road, it has been found essential to build many new bridges and reinforce many of the old ones. The largest bridge is now being constructed over the Zumbro river at Kellogg. This structure will be 630 feet in length and will contain twenty-one spans. The next largest bridge will be built at Weaver over the Whitewater creek. This will be 350 feet long, with reinforced concrete base, similar in construction to the one over the Zumbro.

Mr. Herlihy, the chief civil engineer of bridges and construction, who is in charge of the work, says in regard to the work: "We are progressing with the work rapidly, in fact much faster than we had anticipated. The moderate weather has been of great assistance to us, and I think the whole job will be a matter of history after the first of the year 1911."

Employ 600 Men.

"At the present time, we are working twenty-two crews, making a total of over six hundred men, but this number will be greatly increased in the next month. The great difficulty we are experiencing at the present time," continued he, "is in securing boarding places for our men. They all sleep in bunk cars, which follow them along the road, but in the small towns it is rather difficult to have the housewives feed them, and hotel accommodations are practically unknown."

When asked if he had experienced any difficulty in securing competent barber of DeSoto, Wis., was in the city this morning getting a number of pictures of the Burlington wreck developed. Mr. Van Camp intends making up a large number of post cards, as he secured orders from many of those on the wrecked train for pictures of the wreckage.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY PROBES PACKING CO.

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Charges that the National Packing company borrowed $15,000,000 from Kuhn Loeb & Company with which to purchase enough stock to control the New York Dressed Beef Butchers' association were probed by the federal grand jury investigating the alleged packing trust. Frederick Joseph, president of the association, and Arthur Block and Aaron Buchbaum, two of its organizers, appeared at the federal building today in response to subpoenas issued by the grand jury. The New York Dressed Beef association was originally an independent concern. The government charges that the only reason that the National Packing company got control of this association was in order to stifle competition in the country's metropolis.

The absorption of the Dressed Beef association removed from the field the strongest competitor of the National company in the east and the government is said to be seeking to prove that this absorption constituted an overt act in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The government alleges that Edward Tilder, president of the National Packing company authorized the loan by which the dressed beef concern was taken over. The entire attention of the jury was devoted to this phrase of the investigation today. President Joseph of the Dressed Beef association arrived here from New York and was summoned before the grand jury yesterday. Buchbaum and Block will follow him.

SAYS DEAD GIRL IS HIS DAUGHTER

TOPEKA, Kansas, Feb. 7.—Believing that the body of the woman found Friday upon Mount Tamalpais, near San Francisco, is that of his daughter Leona, Green Cavender of Kansas City will leave at once for California, to try to identify the body. Miss Cavender, who came here from St. Joseph, Mo., left for the west last September. She was about 41 years of age and had nearly $1,000 with her when last heard from.

Cavender's theory is that his daughter was taken to the mountain top and murdered for her money.

EGYPTIAN KHEDEVE MARRIES COUNTESS

CAIRO, Egypt, Feb. 7.—News that Khedive Abbas II had deserted monogamy and had secretly married an Austrian countess has caused a great sensation throughout Egypt. The khedive's new wife has taken the name of Zubaida Yen Hanem, and she will live at the harem henceforth.

Abbas II had heretofore posed as a strict monogamist and his conversion to polygamy has alarmed the aristocratic wives of Egypt, who fear their husbands will follow suit.

The khedive is 35 years old and was married in 1892 to Princess Ikbal Hanem, who had been his only wife until his recent marriage to the Austrian countess, whose identity has not yet been revealed.

RUBBER MILLS' BOWLING TEAMS

Manager Bert Bice of Combination Alleys Says a New Scheme Is Formed

Manager Bert Bice of the Combination alleys today announces that the La Crosse Rubber Mills factory located on Indian Hill arranged with him to roll at the alleys every Friday evening. At the present time twelve of the men at the factory have signified their intention of participating in the pin game. It is expected that they will roll in two teams. Later in the season, it is expected that more of the men at the Rubber Mills will join the ranks of the bowlers. As many of the men have had considerable experience at the game it is expected that good scores will be rolled when the teams get together.

The bowling season is now about half over, it being the intention of Manager Bice to close his alleys about the first of June.

The Nationals, who will represent the north side league at the international bowling congress at St. Paul this month are practicing daily and rolling excellent scores. No dates have been assigned to the local bowlers but they will make an attempt to roll their games on a Saturday.

The death is doubly sad because it occurred on the day that she was to have been married to Gerald D. Ryan of Chicago. Before the ceremony could be performed the young lady had passed away. Deceased was buried on the anniversary of her birthday, February 5.

GENERAL WOOD AT BALTIMORE HOSPITAL

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 8.—Major General Leonard Wood, U. S. A., is at the Johns Hopkins hospital in a serious condition while it is being determined whether or not he will have to undergo an operation.

By a singular coincidence the same hospital in this city holds the two ranking officers of the army—General Franklin Bell, the chief of staff, having been there for some time taking the "rest cure."

General Bell's condition, however, is not serious.

The Authentic American Watch

It is a matter of history that the Waltham Watch Company was the first in the world to make watches with interchangeable parts by machinery.

It is a matter of knowledge to all scientific watchmakers that every device and mechanical improvement of importance in the making of watches has originated in the factory of the Waltham Watch Company at Waltham, Massachusetts.

It is a matter of fact that the Waltham Watch Company makes more watches than any other watch company in the world.

It is a matter of general opinion that the Waltham Watch Company makes better watches than any other company in the world.

It is a matter of wisdom to buy a Waltham Watch adjusted to temperature and position and to buy only of a reliable retail jeweler.

SEND BIRD TO A BIG CONVENTION

Board of Education Lets Dancing, Lighting and Power Matters Rest.

The school board last night decided to send Superintendent John P. Bird to the National Superintendent's Convention at Indianapolis, Indiana, as has been their custom for several years, because it was thought that there was much benefit to be derived therefrom.

The committees on books, fuel, supplies, teachers and finance read their reports, and all were approved of by the board.

The matter of placing signs on the different school buildings, on which would be placed the names recently assigned them, which was considered at the January meeting, was again spoken of, but it was decided that it would be quite an expense, and the matter was dropped.

The attendance and truant reports were read, and it was decided that Mr. W. S. Jameson, the truant officer, was deserving of an increase in salary.

Table Dancing Resolution
A communication was received from the Epworth League, in which they objected to dancing in school buildings, but this communication was put on the table until the next meeting.

Mr. Pitman presented facts on Tungsten lamps for the school buildings, but the board did not decide immediately concerning them. It was shown, however, that these lamps had advantages over the old ones, and one large Tungsten has been placed in the gymnasium on approval.

The subject of pumps to be run by motors was also spoken of and figures were submitted, but nothing definite has been decided on either subject, but it was said that the ward schools should receive more attention, instead of it all being centered on the high school.

ALDRICH ECONOMICAL

AN OLD IDEA

Shown to be Absolutely False by Modern Science

People used to think that baldness was one of those things which are handed down from generation to generation, from father to son just like a family heirloom.

Science has shown the fallacy of this belief by providing that baldness itself is not a constitutional disease, but the result of a germ invasion of which only Herpelide can effectually rid the scalp.

Washing only cleans the scalp of dandruff, it doesn't kill the germs. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Newbro's Herpelide will do this in every case. It is also a delightful dressing.

The Bethlehem steel works will add a plant for manufacturing great guns and will make the 24 twelve-inch, forty eight six-inch and forty-eight four-inch guns for the battleships that will be built in the United States for the Argentine republic. It is believed the Bethlehem works will also try to land the contract for building the engines, crankshafts and propeller shafts for the battleships.

European Hair Schools

In Berlin, Paris, Vienna and other European cities there are now regular schools where the scientific care of the hair is made a special study and the teachers in these schools become so skilled in the knowledge of hair that they can tell merely by the touch whether it is in a healthy condition or not. They also know the effects of different tonics on different hair or different restoratives on the same hair. It is thoroughly established that dyes are harmful to the hair. All preparations claiming to restore gray hair are subjected to the most rigid tests. It found in the least degree harmful the public in informed through official bulletins issued from time to time. In America there is no such censorship, and many preparations claiming to restore gray hair are only temporary dyes that do not go to the root of the trouble, which is impoverishment of the hair glands. HAY'S HAIR HEALTH in this country is recognized as the standard restorative for prematurely gray hair. OUTSIDE STUDY
MOST HELPFUL

So Says Miss Erhart of Columbia College Before High School Audience

A fairly large crowd was present at the high school auditorium to hear Miss Erhart of Columbia College, talk on the subject of how to study. She proved a very interesting speaker, and presented many useful hints which would aid born teachers and scholars in their work. She said, among other things, that the subjects taught should be made interesting, and frequent outside things could be done to add interest to the study, and she gave examples of where this had been tried, and in most cases it had proved extremely successful. She also said that many pupils did not know how to get the most important facts out of a lesson, and that they should be taught this as early as possible, as many persons did not know how to study when they entered college. Her talk proved very interesting, as was shown by the applause when she finished, and it is to be hoped that La Crosse will be fortunate enough to secure more speakers of this kind.

JEFFRIES TALKS ON PROHIBITION

James J. Jeffries, the fighter, while in Des Moines, Iowa, recently had this to say regarding prohibition to a newspaper man:

"I understand this town is going to become a chalk mark—going dry. That means that it's going dead and will only be brought to life by the expenditure of large sums of money. Now, I am a temperance man—don't drink because I don't care to, and for the further reason that every drop of the joy water that I might absorb would mean the punching of my meal ticket without value received. But I can't see for the life of me, how one man has the right to legislate morality or habits into another. Why, this country is worse than Russia. We haven't half the liberty here that the people of France or Germany have. The government says whiskey shall be manufactured, and along come the pygmies and declare that no man shall drink it, without breaking the law. That's understandable, too, because the people there know how to live. Only the English and Americans live like pigs. Why, over in Paris the only drunks one sees are American and English men and women. The natives know where the boundary between liberty and license is drawn, whereas women from this country or Great Britain sling down a cocktail and various wines, the continental woman quietly sips one glass and lets it go at that.

"They say drink is responsible for crime. Piffle! Ninety-one per cent of the crooks I know never touch booze. We've got to learn to live in this country. When we do that, we won't need to have every Tom, Dick and Harry of a fanatic neighbor making laws for us."

DON'T ACT ON HIGH PRICES

GRAIN LETTER

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Bearish news received due attention for a short time after the opening in wheat but later speculative considerations took precedence. Congestion due to the concentrated cash holdings all over the country and especially here made the market prone to run into oversold conditions, too much of the selling on breaks being merely shorting.

There was a break of half a cent at the opening, with May off at

HOPE RESTS IN SPARTA VICTORY

Local High School Team to Spend all Week Getting Into Shape for Important Game

MAY MEAN CHAMPIONSHIP

Players Are in Prime Condition and Team Hopes to Win by a Good Big Score

The La Crosse high school basketball team is in fine condition after their game with Baraboo, and will spend this week putting on the finishing touches for the Sparta game, which will be played here next Saturday night. The management of the team secured the new Y. M. C. A. gymnasium at some expense, in order to hold the large crowd which will undoubtedly come to see the locals defeat their old rivals—crowds which, in former years, have been too large to be accommodated in the gymnasium of the high school.

The winning of this game means a great deal to the locals, because, if they succeed, the outlook for the state championship will be exceedingly good. The team that represents the school year, is one of the fastest and best balanced teams that has ever fought for the red and black and this is proved by the fact that many Baraboo people remarked that La Crosse had one of the best teams in the state, and the fastest that had ever visited them. The team work of the locals is excellent, the men work well together, and any team that meets them will have to fight. The locals are in the game from start to finish, the signals run off smoothly, and the men play an aggressive game at all times; however, this week will be spent in perfecting the team work and in getting the men in first class condition.

Men in the Lineup
A glance at the lineup of the locals will show the caliber of the men. Ralph Bradish, captain and forward, is a veteran, having played on the team ever since it was first organized, three years ago. This is not all the experience he has had, however, as he has played on a great many other teams, and is always the largest point gainer for his team, as it takes an exceptionally fast man to hold him. The other forward, Ed Stavrum, has also had much experience, this being his second year on the first team, but before this he had played on numerous other teams, and he is a hard man for any guard. This is Ray Keeler's first year on the school team, but this does not mean that he has not played before. On the contrary, he was captain of a class team, and played center on the champion class team last year, outplaying his man in almost every game. So far this year Tub has given a good account of himself in every game.

George Walker, guard, has played two years, and is a very fast guard, playing a game much the same as the famous Eck Schaldach, who played two years ago. The other guard, Fitch Shaw, is playing his first year on the team, and like many of the others, has played on class teams, and starred on them, and is now playing a fine game for the school team.

Girls' Preliminary Game
The girls of the two schools will play a preliminary game, and it is expected that La Crosse will be able to take both games. The general admission for these games will be 35 cents, and it is hoped that when the teams line up there will be a record crowd on hand to encourage them.

Speaks to Students
Miss Erhart of Columbia college, spoke to the pupils and public at the high school yesterday on how to study, one address being held after school and the other in the evening.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR BIG FIGHT PROMOTER

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—The Overland train on which James Coffroth, the fight promoter, is racing across the continent in a race against time from London to San Francisco, has practically been converted today into a special train, by the Southern Pacific railroad company. Because they believe the sporting public has taken a keen interest in Coffroth's race, upon which he has wagered $1,000, the railroad officials have ordered the road cleared and every precaution taken against delay which might cause the train to lose time.

Sinking Spells Every Few Days

"At the time I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I was having sinking spells every few days. My hands and feet would get cold; I could scarcely breathe, and could feel myself gradually sinking away until I would be unconscious. Those about me could not tell there was life in me. After these spells I would be very weak and nervous, sleepless and without appetite; had neuralgia in my head and heart. After taking the remedy a short time all this disappeared and in a few weeks all the heart trouble was gone."

For twenty years we have been constantly receiving just such letters as these. There is scarcely a locality in the United States where there is not some one who can testify to the merits of this remarkably successful Heart Remedy.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy is sold by all druggists. If the first bottle fails to benefit, your druggist will return your money.

"I WILL PLAY GRATIS"-KLING

Wants to Be Released at the End of Season; McRoy of American League Investigating Case

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Before pitcher John Kling will be permitted to return to organized baseball he will have to convince Secretary Robert McRoy of the American League that he is not really an outlaw.

This became known today when it was announced that President Herrmann of the national baseball commission had appointed McRoy a special committee of one to investigate Kling's case. If McRoy reports favorably the national commission will vote unanimously for the catcher's reinstatement.

Incidentally Chicago fans were advised today of an interview with Kling in which the catcher declared he would play with the Chicago club gratis next season if he could be released unconditionally at the end of the season. Kling has several irons in the fire and he thinks if he could once get free of the Cubs he could get $15,000 a year catching for and managing some other major league club.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

FLYNN AND TAR BABY IN BOUT

Meet Tonight at Los Angeles; Flynn Hopeful of Winning; Langford Says He will Win Fight

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 8.—Sam Langford and Jim Flynn, who meet in a twenty-round contest tonight, have practically finished their training for the bout. At Vernon 1,600 men and women watched Flynn box ten rounds with four men, one of whom was Lew Powell, yesterday. "I'm ready right now for the bell," said Flynn, "and if I don't lick Langford I'll go back to firing an engine."

The best that the crowd of paying patrons at Langford's Stephenson street gymnasium got for their money was to see Sam put in forty-five minutes caressing the medicine ball, punching bag, skipping rope, shadow boxing and wrestling. "I'll stop Flynn this side of four rounds," said the negro.

Joe Woodman, manager of Langford, was in conference with Lewis Blot, who holds the March boxing permit in San Francisco. Blot wants Langford to go north and fight either Al Kaufman, Jim Barry or Sandy Ferguson next month. Woodman refused to make any definite statement of his plans after Tuesday's fight.
